About Founder of Aurox Solutions

Mansoor Ahmed Siddiqui, the founder of Aurox Solutions, brings over 21 years of experience in EMR systems, software development, and digital business solutions. With a strong background in IT (MS IT) and Public Health (M.Phil.), Mansoor has a unique perspective on the intersection of technology and healthcare.

His vision for Aurox is to drive innovation and deliver transformative solutions that empower businesses to thrive in an ever-evolving digital landscape. Under his leadership, Aurox is committed to setting new standards in excellence and client satisfaction.

Journey of Our Business

Our journey began with a bold leap into entrepreneurship, driven by a commitment to innovation and a deep-seated passion for solving complex problems. After over two decades of success in EMR systems, software development, digital business solutions, and event management, our founder, Mansoor Ahmed Siddiqui, established Aurox Solutions with a clear vision: to provide transformative technology solutions that empower businesses and organizations to thrive in an evolving digital landscape.

Starting with limited resources but immense expertise, we brought together a team of 25 dedicated professionals who share our commitment to excellence. Together, we aimed to create a full-service provider that addresses the diverse needs of today's market, from implementing advanced healthcare systems to developing seamless e-commerce platforms and orchestrating flawless events.
